THE END

poem

nature,

we need to care more about you you gave us so much, now it's time to give something back we've polluted your way of life, so we can all drive we dumped all of our CO₂, but we still love you with all your beautiful creatures, but we didn't think about all their futures we need to help, but tell us how only then we can make a vow by messing with you, we messed with ourselves and now we need to live with the consequences and help
